

Dog on It by Spencer Quinn

Chet - our canine narrator

Bernie Little - Chet's human, founder & part owner of the Little Detective Agency

Leda - Bernie's ex-wife old man Heydrich - Bernie's next door neighbor

Cynthia Chambliss - the concerned mother of missing Madison

Angela DiPesto - recommended Bernie to Cynthia

Madison - a missing teenager

Charlie - Leda and Bernie's son

Iggy - the next door neighbor's dog

Cap'n Crunch - Madison's pet bird

Damon Keffer - Cynthia's ex-husband, Madison's father

Mr. Rentner - Madison's history teacher

Malcolm - Leda's boyfriend

Suzie Sanchez - a reporter with the Valley Tribune

Lieutenant Stine - part of Metro PD, recommended Bernie to Suzie

Justin Anthony III - a husband Bernie was hired to surveil

Cara Thorpe - the registered owner of a license plate run by Bernie

Amy - attends to Chet at the vet

Tim Fletcher - a high school friend of Madison at Heavenly High School

Kayleigh - Tim's little sister

Ruben Ramirez - a former student at Heavenly High School

Gina - a contact of Bernie, has access to criminal records

Boris - the "perp" Chet encounters

Harold - Boris' driver

Mr. Gulagov - the man Boris and Harold answer to Olga - another of Mr. Gulagov's associates

the bikers - encountered by Chet in chapter 11

Rick Torres - Bernie's friend in Missing Person

Elena Larapova - Damon's receptionist

Simon Berg - Cynthia's boyfriend, works at a high-end dog treat company

Otis Wayne - a weapons expert

General Beauregard - Otis' dog

Myron King - Damon's irrigation supplier

Dylan McKnight - Suzie's ex-boyfriend

(Stopped list at Chapter Eighteen)