

Even Dogs in the Wild by Ian Rankin

John Rebus - retired DI, now civilian consultant

Siobhan (Sha-von) Clarke - DI. heading up a murder investigation

Malcolm Fox - DI temporarily assigned to a visiting surveillance team

Christine Esson and Ronnie Oglivie - 2 DSs working with Siobhan Clarke

Lord Minton - murder victim, a prosecuting lawyer

Big Ger Cafferty - attempted murder victim, career-long nemesis of Rebus

Michael Tolland - murdered lottery winner, connected to Acorn House

Andrew Goodman - supplies bodyguards for Big Ger

Darryl Christie - a rival crime boss

Davie Dunn - current owner of the Gimlet, in league with Christie

Chick Carpenter - cohort of Christie's, owner of a storage facility

Joe Stark - head of the Glaswegian crime family

Dennis Stark - Joe Stark's son

Ricky Compston - heading up surveillance on the visiting Starks & co

Alec Bell - on the surveillance team

Beth Hastie - on the surveillance team, story doesn't add up during murder

Jake Emerson - on surveillance team

Jackie Dyson - uncover cop, infiltrated the Stark crime family

Mitch Fox - Malcom Fox ailing father

Jude Fox - Malcom Fox's sister

Albert Stout - former crime reporter

Laura Smith - current crime reporter

Patrick Spiers - deceased reporter, unearthed Acorn House secrets

Todd Dalrymple - a target wrapped up in Holroyd's disappearance

Paul Jefferies - an ailing former enforcer of Big Ger, unable to speak

David Ritter/Ratner - a former enforcer of Big Ger, knew Holroyd escaped

Hamish Wright - missing lorry driver for the Starks

Anthony Wright - Hamish Wright's nephew, employed at storage facility

Deborah Quant - pathologist at the mortuary, friend of Rebus

Bryan Holroyd/Mark Foyle - victim of assault at the Acorn House, escapee

Jordan Foyle - son of Bryan Holroyd, employed a mortuary, seeking revenge