

The Widows of Malabar Hill by Sujata Massey

Perveen Mistry - first female solicitor/lawyer in Bombay
Mustafa - longtime butler in charge of Mistry House
Alice Hobson-Jones - Perveen's English friend
Jamshedji Mistry - Perveen's father and fellow solicitor
Omar Farid - a deceased client with a complicated estate
Faisal Mukri - the appointed estate trustee for Mr. Farid
Cyrus Sodawalla - a former acquaintance of Perveen's from Calcutta
Lily Yazdani - aged 14, works in father's bakery-cafe
Firoze Yazdani - owner of bakery-cafe opposite Mistry Law offices
John - the Mistrys' Goan cook
Jayanth - aged 20, a client charged with inciting unrest over workers' safety
Judge Thorpe - ruled in Jayanth's case
Razia-begum - the first wife of Omar Farid
Sakina Chivne - the second wife of Omar Farid
Mumtaz - the third wife of Omar Farid, formerly a musician
Ramchandra - a ricksaw driver
Mr. Martin - secretary to Sir David Hobson-Jones
Lady Gwendolyn Hobson-Jones - Alice's mother
Sir David Hobson-Jones - Alice's father
Camellia Mistry - Perveen's mother
Gulnaz Baker & Hema Patel - Perveen's college friends
Esther Vachha - Perveen's childhood rival
Mr. Joshi - one of Perveen's college instructor

(List Ends at Chapter Four.)